To visitors of admissiontomedicalschool.com

Getting into medical school is the result of the applicant's work and the decisions of medical school admissions committees. While the assistance that Dr. Shallit, or any other consultant or counselor can provide is generally helpful to the process, no one can guarantee that an applicant will get in to the school of his/her choice, or into any school at all.

Rates are as of today's date but may change in the future. Applicants will of course, be advised of current rates at the time Dr. Shallit is engaged.

In seeking to engage Dr. Shallit for medical school admissions counseling services, the client (the "applicant") agrees that the following terms apply:

Dr. Shallit does not charge for an initial call to learn more about this process. If applicant decides to engage Dr. Shallit, a check is required in advance to cover the estimated costs of the services desired (as described below).

If, for any reason, applicant or Dr. Shallit decide not to proceed, or if applicant uses less time than estimated a refund for any unused time will be sent. Any additional terms and conditions must be agreed to by applicant and Dr. Shallit, in writing.

Rates

Application Consulting/General Review

$195 per hour
